

Title Page

Manuscript title

Broken Proportionality: Prosecutorial Demands and State Financial Loss in Indonesian Corruption Cases

Authors

1. Mukhlis Amien — Department of Informatics, Universitas Bhinneka Nusantara, Malang, Indonesia. Email: amien@ubhinus.ac.id · ORCID: 0000-0002-1848-167X
2. Go Frendi Gunawan — State Alchemists

Corresponding author

Mukhlis Amien — Department of Informatics, Universitas Bhinneka Nusantara, Jalan Mojopahit 666B, Malang, Indonesia. Email: amien@ubhinus.ac.id. ORCID: 0000-0002-1848-167X

Author contributions

MA conceived the study, assembled and audited the corpus, and ran the statistical analyses. GFG contributed to the research design, the comparative benchmark, and manuscript revision. Both authors approved the final manuscript.

Funding

This research received no external funding.

Conflicts of interest

The authors declare no conflicts of interest.

Ethics approval

This study analyzes publicly available court documents published by the Indonesian Supreme Court. No human subjects were involved and no ethics approval was required.

Data availability

The CorpusKorupsi structured dataset and analysis scripts will be made available upon publication.

Use of AI-assisted tools

The authors used Claude (Anthropic) as a computational research assistant for programming, statistical analysis, and manuscript drafting. All analyses were independently verified through reproducible scripts, and the authors take full responsibility for all scientific claims and interpretations.